

Aquaculture Advisory Council's (AAC) view on BREXIT

Position Paper – March 2018

The Aquaculture Advisory Council (AAC) gratefully acknowledges EU funding support.

The Aquaculture Advisory Council values the contributions of its United Kingdom Members to the work of the Council and to the European Union aquaculture sector.

The AAC Members from the United Kingdom are:

- British Trout Association
- Client Earth
- Compassion in World Farming
- IFFO The Marine Ingredients Organisation
- Marine Conservation Society
- Scottish Salmon Producer Organisation LTD
- The Shellfish Association of Great Britain

The AAC encourages that these Members, as well as other United Kingdom organisations can continue contributing as active observers¹ to the development of a sustainable aquaculture sector through a constructive and continuous dialogue in the future post-Brexit.

¹ AAC Rules of Procedure (Article 10-3): “The AAC shall not be responsible for meeting the costs of attendance of observers. Observers shall not be entitled to vote.”
